Well, I went a long, long time ago on holiday as a guest once to Pontins at Camber Sands. I think I was there in the summer school holiday time in 1985 and I was there for 2 weeks. I was about 23 at the time and I went there with my late partner and his 2 children. It was 38 years ago now so I don't remember everything about it now but I do remember a few things I did and I definitely still remember overall that I really enjoyed myself there. And yes, when I was there in the mid-1980s it still felt like you were living in the holiday camp from the tv series Hi-Di-Hi. :-) I still have the plaque I got given for coming runner up there in the ladies singles table tennis match.
