

Debbie Levett b 1960

First went in early 1970s. Always went with group of friends and children. Went to different ones - mainly Pontins, Devon plus elsewhere. Would go at Easter. Went with George Warren and family to Camber Sands. Many services to look after children in evening so adults could go to entertainment. Would go catered so mum got time off. Later on, also went self-catering sometimes. In the 1970s starts going abroad to Spain. Mum liked the sunnier weather but in many ways the holidays were similar to camps. In 2017 took her grandchildren to Butlins in Bognor. Very different - concessions for food rather than all in one.
